
Who We Are

EaPUC is a consortium of leading universities from the European Union and Eastern Partnership countries, focused on cooperation in four key areas: education, science and research, best practices, and the societal role of the university, which shall further strengthen strategic partnership activities between its members. The consortium aims to develop new opportunities for each partner university in the above-mentioned areas, as well as to contribute to the dissemination of European academic practices and open new opportunities to Eastern Partnership countries' academia.
